FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Vertical Praise's Newest Album – Grace Through Faith – Now Available!

Current Single – "That's My King" – Doing Well at Radio!

NORTH GARDEN, Va. – Vertical Praise, an up and coming talent in Southern Gospel, is proud to announce the release of their third recording.

The new album, titled Grace Through Faith, released this month. The recording was produced by Donna M. Beauvais for Vertical Sky Productions.

Holly Carden of Vertical Praise said, "We are so excited to finally have the completed project in our hands. This project has been a long time coming, and we are so pleased to make it available to our friends, family, and fans!"

"This project was a real labor of love for Vertical Praise," responded Vertical Praise's Tony Hensley. "It took a while for us to get the finished product, but we are more than pleased with this recording!"

The group recorded vocals for the album at Sunset Blvd. Studios in Franklin, Tennessee. The album features songs written by some of Gospel music's most prolific writers including Chris Binion, Rebecca J. Peck, Gerald Crabb, Sheri LaFontaine, Twila LaBar, Marty Funderburk, Daryl K. Williams, and many more.

Grace Through Faith's debut radio single, "That's My King," has already had a resounding response from fans and radio programmers. The song was written by Rebecca J. Peck and Phil Barfoot and has already charted on the GospelMusicTimes.com Top 40 Fan Chart.

"Our listeners are absolutely eating this song up," mentioned Chris Unthank, program director for the award-winning SouthernSpinRadio.com. "This is the kind of song that radio has been begging for from this talented trio."

"That's My King" can be found on the Daywind Radio Disc 75, cut #10.
